Benefits of Affiliate Membership

Membership in the Home Builders Association of Lexington provides many benefits at the National, State, and local levels. We realize that the Affiliate category is new for many of you but after reading the information below, we're sure you'll see it as a great benefit. As always, let us know what you think.

HISTORY

On September 27, 1998 the NAHB Board of Directors adopted a bylaw amendment establishing the Affiliate member category. It was not until December 2007 that the Affiliate member category was adopted by the HBA of Lexington. Today, we have over 250 Affiliate members and this is your chance to be a part and sign up your employees. The Affiliate member category was formed to:

- Increase the industry's impact through a larger and more informed membership base;
- Provide official recognition to the employees who are already making valuable contributions to the industry at the local, state, and national levels; and
- Provide a cost-effective and affordable membership category to increase involvement and participation at all levels of the NAHB federation.

BENEFITS

The Affiliate membership category allows employees of NAHB members' companies to become members of NAHB at a reduced rate. Both Builders and Associates can be Affiliate members. A person may ONLY become an NAHB Affiliate member through the local association of their employer. In addition, the employer must have at least one Associate or Builder member of record in active NAHB membership status. Affiliates receive their own NAHB account with access to valuable resources as well as their own HBAL directory listing. Affiliates also receive communication on upcoming events and can take advantage of discounts offered from NAHB and the Member-2-Member Discount Program.

- Receive the Weekly View newsletter
- Monthly Home Builder magazine online
- Receive all event notices, including membership meetings
- Discount on NAHB publications
- Reduced registration for the International Show
- Directory listing under your name online at HBALexington.com
- Access to NAHB's member-only website and your own HBAL online account
- Free HBAL decal for your auto or office
- Your own subscription to Nation's Building News
- Participate in education seminars, networking events, and committees

"Affiliate membership gives my employees the pride of ownership in the HBA that I have enjoyed for years. Everyone in your office who is, or wants to be involved in the HBAL needs to join as an affiliate." David Thornton, Greater Lexington Insurance Agency

SPIKE CREDITS

Short on Spike credits? Spikes receive ½ credit for recruiting an Affiliate Member and ½ credit for their renewal. This makes for a great opportunity to earn additional Spike credits. Remember, you'll need Spike credits to attend the 2009 Spike Party in Las Vegas this year.

JOINING

It only costs $25 to become an Affiliate member of the HBA. Download an application from HBALexington.com and get started today!

"As a manager of a construction company, I feel it is extremely important for all of our employees to know that they are an important part of our entire industry, not just our company. This will expose them to more information and give them more knowledge, which will enhance their abilities as a valuable member of our team." Andrew C. Hils, V.P. Barlow Homes
